ACOUSTIC UNDERGROUND CONCERT SERIES PRESENTS:

Nick Annis & Elizabeth Crisfield Saturday January 4th, 8:00pm

One of the nicest by-products of the burgeoning South Florida folk music scene is the synergistic union of many upcoming local performers. Elizabeth Crisfield has recently teamed up with an equally talented musical partner, Nick Annis. Nick has been delighting South Florida folkies for the past year or so with tantalizing brief appearances. We have been intrigued by his pensive and deeply felt compositions that reflect his somewhat taciturn and self-contained persona. Nick is self-taught. His early idols were Paul Simon, Cat Stevens and Jim Croce. Today Dave Carter, Richard Schindell, Michael Smith and Jeffery Foucault are leading the way for him. Nick is homegrown and close to our pulse. Pixyish Elizabeth Crisfield has such boundless energy and talent you just don't want her to stop playing her fiddle and step dancing. Elizabeth, from Niagara Falls, NY, is a classically trained violinist, who took a liking to contra dancing and clogging while in graduate school at the University of Georgia at Athens. The violin became a fiddle and we now hear her regularly at contra dances in South Florida. With the ability to immediately pick up any music she hears, Elizabeth frequently jams with some of our finest performers. Her eyes smile, her feet step and her love for the music infects everyone lucky enough to hear her.

FOLK FRIDAY PRESENTS

Stars of the 12th South Florida Folk Festival
Friday January 17th, 8:00pm, entrance free

The Therapy Sisters

Michael Stock called them "those funny gals from Texas". These gals are hot, current and funny and have been featured on NPR. Based in Austin, this literate and creative duo are at the top of their game and on top of the national scene. Maurine McLean writes music influenced by comic opera, Latin pop music and TV themes songs of the 60's. Lisa Rogers was weaned on church music, cut her teeth on folk, took her first steps to bluegrass, and found self-realization in the world of novelty tunes. Lisa's melodic guitar and Maurine's fretless bass go together like hallucinations and Haldol.

Dave Nachmanoff

Winner of the national song writing competition at the 2002 South Florida Folk Festival, Dave Nachmanoff never had a doubt or hesitation about his direction and career. On stage at age 9, with an educational detour that earned him a PHD (Philosophy), he quickly returned to the stage and song writing. As a performer, he is full of energy, personality and fun. His shows are "family friendly" and appeal to all audiences. With a huge repertoire of original songs he covers a broad range of topics and musical genres. "Heartfelt, inspired songwriting... with a delivery both biting and assured." – Paul Zollo, Sing Out! Magazine .

January 25, 2003

This Husband and Wife team of singers / songwriters / musicians will be playing once again in South Florida after a long absence. Steve Gillette and Cindy Mangsen have separate reputations and musical histories, but together they are purely music. Steve is best known as a songwriter for numerous major artists such as John Denver, Garth Brooks, Linda Ronstadt among others. As a skilled guitarist Steve has been compared to Doc Watson. Cindy is renowned for her compelling voice and her trio recordings with Priscilla Herdman and Anne Hills, as well as her solo albums. Cindy compliments Steve's guitar and fiddle, with guitar, banjo and concertina.

THE KAUFMAN'S AND BUKSTEL HOUSE CONCERTS *PresentMichael Johnson

Saturday January 11, 2003. 8PM

His voice immediately identifies him as the man who sings "Bluer Than Blue", "Give Me Wings", "That's That", "This Night Won't Last Forever" and other landmark songs. His music shows a diversity, depth and heart that only come from years of dedication to a labor of love. His name is Michael Johnson.

He has no plans to put on a cowboy hat, affect an accent, wear one glove or be anyone but himself. Moreover, he is "The" Michael Johnson, and he has performed and lived more music and recorded more hits than you would imagine. When asked what he would have you know about himself, Michael says: "Tell them that I love it." He started playing at age thirteen and just never quit. Singing, playing, writing and recording are the only things he's ever done and he loves it. "Tell them I play guitar." He really plays guitar. He studied in Barcelona and he plays on all his records with a unique and distinctive style. His playing is an important part of his show. "I am a soloist at heart." Michael often performs alone, and he has elevated the art. He prefers the intimacy and spontaneity of a show that can change with the moment. What one remembers of Michael is the texture of his voice, the meaning of the lyric and the music of the guitar - singer, song and sound. And the feeling of being at home with a friend.

Please join us for an exciting night of music and fun We thank you all so much for your support and look forward to hearing from you. ... $15 donation per reservation. Make out check and mail to: Ellen Bukstel, 14640 Mustang Trail, Southwest Ranches, FL 33330.

Dave Nachmanoff

Friday, January 3rd, 8:00 pm

Dave grew up surrounded by the active folk scene of Northern Virginia and Washington D.C. during the 1960s and 70s, where he was exposed to a variety of musical traditions and was inspired by performers like Pete Seeger and Arlo Guthrie. At age 9, Dave wrote his first song — the same year he met the legendary Libba Cotton ("Freight Train") and was invited to accompany her on stage. Throughout the 1970s and 80s, he continued to write and perform, both solo and with several bands the D.C. area, London, and New York City. He studied music and philosophy at Columbia and Oxford universities, earned a Ph.D. in Philosophy from the University of California, Davis (1997), and promptly retired from academia to dedicate himself to music. Having paid his dues playing at bars, restaurants and coffeehouses, Dave has built up an active mailing list of over 4,000 fans throughout the country and is now performing as an opening and featured act at some of the better-known listening rooms, performing arts centers, and college venues.

John Emil will open for Dave.

John Emil is a new up coming artist in the South Florida area. His acoustic style is a balance between the past and contemporary. His songwriting tells an honest tale of his life. In his guitar playing you will here dazzling hints of Robert Johnson to Wes Montgomery.

Suggested donation for the concert is $15 at the door, or $12 in advance

Bob Malone

Friday, January 31st, 8:00 pm

Award-winning pianist/singer/song writer Bob Malone is a distinctive mix of blues, funk, New Orleans soul and solid pop sensibilities in the style of great piano-men like Dr.

John, Billy Joel, Professor Longhair and Randy Newman all rolled into one. His extraordinary charisma and outstanding musicianship, likened in review to "the fervor of a man on fire", are as bold and winning as the humor and depth of his 'tell-it-like-it-is' songwriting, delivered in a raspy voice reminiscent of a young Tom Waits.

Backyard Blues Magazine describes him as "a raconteur of the human condition", with a dry wit and lyrical honesty often compared to John Hiatt or Bob Dylan.

A consummate pianist and showman, Bob Malone spans the musical spectrum from full tilt boogie and hard driven funk to the seamless melodies of great ballads that linger like classic standards.

Suggested donation for the concert is $15 at the door, or $12 in advance.

MICHAEL STOCK
on Folk and Acoustic Music

WLRN radio presenter, Michael Stock's monthly column about South Florida's folk and acoustic music scene. Listen to Michael's show every Sunday from 1:00 to 4:00 PM on WLRN, 91.3 MHz. Contact Michael at : 305-995-1717, or email: mstock@wlrn.org

I am looking forward to the start of this New Year. 2003 is going to be great. I am very excited about the artists that I will be featuring / interviewing this month. On January 5, I will be featuring and interviewing the Songwriter Finalists for the South Florida Folk Festival that will take place on January 18 and 19. Dave Cambest from the Folk festival will be with me on the show helping with the interviews. Also on January 5, I am will feature Ms. Perry Smilw. Perry is from Brooklyn and she is a very famous Jewish folk singer. Perry is the originator of the "Freedom Music Project" which features a chorus of Jewish and Black singers who sing among other things about bridging the gap between the Jewish and black community in New York City.

January 13, I will feature Jerry Gray. Jerry Gray is a famous banjo player in Canada. He is currently in Florida teaching a course on Folk Music and Protest at Florida Atlantic University. Jerry founded a Canadian group in the early 50s called the Travelers. The Travelers played music that was banned in this country. The Travelers started as a protest band; they played the music of the Weavers also. On January 19, I will be playing the pre-recorded National Blue Grass Awards that took place in November. This awards show will be a two-hour show.

I recently received a really nice CD from Enoch Kent: I am a Working Chap. Enoch is a Scottish acapella singer with a thick brogue, his songs are poignant and just incredible.

Due to space limitations in this edition of FOLK NOTES, our CD REVIEW and ARTIST OF THE MONTH columns will be held over until the February edition.
