ACOUSTIC UNDERGROUND CONCERT SERIES PRESENTS:

Matthew Sabatella

Saturday February 1st, 8:00pm

Matthew Sabatella is a rare and special musician in our own backyard, Hollywood, Florida. Following many years of performing and recording his own brand of roots-based music, he immersed himself in traditional American folk music both the songs and their history. He did one study which resulted in an album, The Long Drive, which presents cowboy songs and stories from the trail telling the tale of forty thousand cowboys who drove more than ten million head of cattle across the plains.

His solo acoustic sets include his own interpretations of many of the tunes that tell the story of America. He is dedicated to learning, teaching, and keeping this music vital for new generations. His latest CD, A Walk In The Park, favors acoustic instruments and the arrangements strip the songs to their bones.

Not easily pigeonholed, Sabatella has been compared by music critics to Nick Drake, Neil Young, Tom Waits, Brian Wilson, The Beatles, XTC, Big Star, Martin Sexton, Jack Logan, R.E.M., Matthew Sweet, Ben Folds, Liz Phair, and Bob Mould. Throughout his musical career, Sabatella has contributed his instrumental and vocal abilities to performances and recordings by a wide array of talented songwriters.

Our evening with Matthew and his acoustic guitar will be rich, diverse and delightful. Please join us as we get to know another musical gem among us. Please visit MatthewSabatella.com for more information and plenty of music.

FOLK FRIDAY PRESENTS

Friday February 21st, 8:00pm, entrance free

Bob Rafkin

If you missed the South Florida Folk Festival or if you didn't get enough (we are folk insatiable) here's a chance to here one of the best of the show. It doesn't matter where you see or hear Bob Rafkin for the first time; he's guaranteed to touch your heart.

Bob is a premier singer, songwriter and guitar finger stylist; actually one of the finest and most sought after pickers in the state.

Born in New York City, Bob grew up in Washington, D.C., Cleveland and Philadelphia. His musical journey began in Greenwich Village in the mid-sixties, but he makes his home now in Orlando.

Bob's musical journey has teamed him with some leading performers of the last thirty years. He played on two LP's by Phil Ochs including the legendary Gunfight at Carnegie Hall. Studio sessions included work with Gene Vincent, The Everly Brothers, Randy Newman and Arlo Guthrie. He re-worked Joni Mitchell's 1972 song Blonde In The Bleachers for single release.

Dirty Linen lauded his 1994 release Down This Road saying "He's an exceptional guitarist, has a smooth pleasing voice and his years spent in the studio show in the simple yet effective arrangements". Bob is winning awards for his work and his timeless music, lyrically and instrumentally. We are so fortunate to have him among us. www.bobrafkin.com

THE KAUFMAN'S HOUSE CONCERTS*Still on the Hill Friday, February 28th

When Still On The Hill walks on stage with banjos, mandolin and guitars, an audience might expect traditional folk. But what they quickly discover is a band without borders inventing a language of original material with a dialect all it's own! Still on the Hill not only moves its audience musically but also excites them visually. The band has a lot of fiery chemistry and explosive elements. Keeping one foot firmly rooted in traditional music Still on the Hill ventures way out with the other foot, drawing from backgrounds in folk, bluegrass, classical, rock, country & swing. These elements coalesce into powerful & new music that they call Folkgrass.

Having performed at prestigious festivals including the Kerrville Folk Festival, The Walnut Valley Festival in Winfield, Kansas and many others.. Still on the Hill has established themselves as a concert favorite.

For information about upcoming events contact: jkauf2997@aol.com or call Judy or Allan at 305-661-5278.

BARKER HOUSE CONCERTS, N. Miami
305-644-9111 / 305-972-5685*Still on the Hill Sunday March 2nd, 8:00 pm

The popular duo will present their brand of music at the Barker House Concert, following their presentation at the Kaufman's, especially for fans who live in North Dade or Broward Counties.

Crush Velvet will open for Still on the Hill.

Both born in New York with two very different backgrounds, Carrie Lynn and Diane Bostick brought their creative influences together to form Crush Velvet. With two distinct vocals, both share in vocal harmonies, creative writing and musical composition. Carrie and Diane craft their original songs that range from the gutsy blueness of "High End of the Low", the solemn "And I Whispered", to their witty and catchy "Wholly Socks". Diane is a one time winner of the Bud Lite Comedy Competition in NY, was able to fuse her years of vocal training and songwriting in a new South Florida venue in 1997. The comic sense stayed and the passion for writing remains in force in a new music expression, Crush Velvet. Diane specializes in singing and writing, theatrical and comedy performances. Carrie Lynn grew up surrounded by acoustic folk and artistic players. At an early age played piano and guitar, danced and studied art. Writing many poems and stories daydreamed of creating music. Miami, Florida became the great inspiration. Carrie has performed at many local events and venues. Crush Velvet are like the name, smooth to the touch and intense to the heart.

Suggested donation for the concert is $15 at the door, or $12 in advance

For Barker House Concert reservations call Maria Barker at 305-644-9111, 305-972-5685 or email maria@floridamusic.org.

Please see our web site at: www.floridamusic.org for December concerts.

NEWS

The 2003 South Florida Folk Festival

Songwriter Competition winners were:

Wishing Chair best overall and mellow categories. Wishing Chair comprises Miriam Davidson and Kiya Heartwood, creating an acoustic lover's dream. The duo is a songwriting, storytelling, roots, two women tour de force. Wishing Chair members play acoustic guitars, accordion, have great lyrics and fabulous harmonies. If you did not see them at the festival make sure you come see them next year or any other time they are playing.

There was a tie for Upbeat tempo category: Cindy Kalmenson and Ruth Wyand.

Cindy Kalmenson is an original voice from Nashville, weaving deep sentiments with honesty and humor. Writing straight from the heart and spiced with a sense of humor, her soulful voice and clever songs are a must to hear. Ruth Wyand draws on American roots to frame her lyrical gift and demonstrate her strengths as an accomplished guitarist, songwriter and vocalist. Her fingerstyle technique and her variety of tunings are a show to see, her vocal accompaniment is both languid and athletic and the songs she writes reflect her humorous personality and compassionate nature.

Strawberry Folk Festival

Strawberry Folk Festival will take place February 21 to the 23 at the Redland Fruit & Spice Park in Homestead. The festival will feature Folk Music, Folk Tales and Folk Arts. MICHAEL STOCK on Folk and Acoustic Music

WLRN radio presenter, Michael Stock's monthly column about South Florida's folk and acoustic music scene. Listen to Michael's show every Sunday from 1:00 to 4:00 PM on WLRN, 91.3 MHz. Contact Michael at : 305-995-1717, or email: mstock@wlrn.org

I would like to start by just letting everyone know what a great time I had at the South Florida Folk Festival. The Festival was the highlight of my year. For me the festival brings the opportunity for me to get close to the listening audience since I am seated in the radio booth most of the time. It is incredible for me to see the relationship that exists between the folk clubs and the radio station, there is truly a working relationship there and that is amazing and great. Also for me it is exciting to see and listen to the folk musicians who are presenting their new songs. The attendance to the folk festival is an experience every one should have.

This coming month I have the following interviews planned: on Feb 2, I will be doing a special Valentine's Day interview with the duo: Ritchie and Linda, these musicians have lived a fantasy love life. On February 9, I will be away at the Folk Alliance Conference but for my listeners who will not be there I have planned to air a documentary that was produced by WLRN on the Florida Folk Festival. I also plan on airing an interview with the Jewish storyteller: Roselyn Bresnick Perry, and finally the listeners will hear an interview with Camile West from the Bitchin Babes.

On Feb 16, I will interview Jerry Gray. Jerry Gray is a famous banjo player from Canada who founded a group in the early 50s called the Travelers. The Travelers played music that was banned in this country and they were known as a protest band. I will also be interviewing Rachel Bissex. Finally on the 23 day of February, I will interview the trio MPE and have something special regarding the upcoming Annual Bluegrass Festival.
